VOL. V. NO. 14.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE SCHORR HORSES.

The recent sale of Sligo, Sea Robber and Falcon Light to Dr. H. Riddle, former trainer for J. J. McCafferty, leaves J. W. Schorr & Son with a stable of thirty-five all told.

Algol, Macy, Charley Christy, Meadowthorpe, Timemaker, Lieber Karl, Presbyterian, Jack-anapes and Wilson will form the four-year-old and upward division.

Algol looks to be in the pink of condition, and does not show any bad effects from his hard campaign of twenty-five races last year, is sound as a dollar, with not a blemish on him, and with no accident the son of Top Gallant—Equality will prove a factor in the big eastern handicaps, with a reasonable allotment of weight.

Lieber Karl has developed into a handsome horse, has spread out and let down into a bulky looking animal, on the order of his sire, Foster. The colt shows no bad effects of the iron which was applied last fall, his legs seem sound and he promises to train.

Meadowthorpe, the son of Kantaka—Baby, did not face the flag last year, but is now doing well and will race. In the early part of last spring the Schorrs had great faith in Meadowthorpe, but he went wrong and was turned out for the year. Macy, only recently back from New Orleans, shows the need of a good rest, which will be given.

The three-year-olds of this stable will be W. Overton, Sea Lion, Cathedral, Ordnung, Pirate Judge, Lieber Anton, Albert Swind, Nailer, Willie Howard and The Diver.

W. Overton, by Belvidere—Peninah, was taken sick just after the Junior Championship Stakes was decided, and it is only in the last three weeks that the colt has begun to round to, but the improvement has been rapid, and if it continues he will be a prominent candidate for the Tennessee Derby.

Cathedral, now racing at New Orleans, Sea Lion and Ordnung are considered fair colts, while the balance of the Schorr three-year-olds are only ordinary.

The fifteen unnamed two-year-olds are in general a fine looking lot. They are as follows: Chestnut colt, by Kingston—Nihil. Bay colt, by Deceiver—Gypsy Queen. Chestnut colt, by Fonso—May Ban. Bay colt, by Farandole—Ranette. Chestnut colt, by Jim Gore—Lady Jack. Brown colt, by Jim Gore—Malva R. Brown colt, by Wagner—Indiana. Bay colt, by Kantaka—Josephine. Bay colt, by Deceiver—Anna Gray. Bay colt, by Prince of Monaco—Queen Deceiver.

Brown colt, by Bramble—Lady Lindsay. Brown filly, by Boundless—Empera. Chestnut colt, by St. Florian—Reckon. Chestnut colt, by Cayuga—Prosperity. Chestnut colt, by Hanover—Adelia.

The plan of campaigning an eastern and western stable, which was inaugurated last year by this firm, will be followed again this year.—Morning Telegraph.

PATTERSON'S HORSES.

C. T. Patterson, who developed and trained Ornament, Hamburg, Howland, Suisun and other noted performers at Montgomery Park, has again several well-bred ones, and thinks he will develop another star on the turf.

Lamplighted, ch. c, 2, by Lampighter—Harebell (the dam of McIvor), cost $6,700 as a weanling. In this colt Mr. Patterson thought he had the best thoroughbred he ever handled. The colt, however, took sick at Louisville and has never fully recovered, but the illness does not seem serious, and may not effect the colt's performances.

McMeekin, b. c, 2, by Fonso—Daisy Rose, is another of the remarkable youngsters, and is now really the star of the stable, having recently worked three-eighths of a mile in impressive style in 36 seconds, with his weight up. Benita Brush, b. f, 2, by Bramble—Roseville, a full sister to the famous Ben Brush, greatly resembles her illustrious brother and promises to be of stake quality.

Lampwick, ch. c, 2, by Lampighter—Chaplet, is also a handsome colt, in which Mr. Patterson places great dependence.

First Past, b. c, 2, by Order—Happy Sally II., showed a grand trial as a yearling, and still retains the fast burst of speed that he showed early last spring, when, with a boy weighing over 100 pounds, he showed an eighth in 12 seconds. This colt is small and does not grow very fast as was expected. He is a half-brother to The Winner and a full brother to Jolly Roger.

Besides these Mr. Patterson has: Prince of Melbourne, ch. c, 2, by Bramble—Maid of Balgowan.

Kentucky, blk. c, 2, by Kingston—Meta. Phallis, b. c, 2, by Pirate of Penzance—Katie H.

Chestnut filly, 2, by Prince Royal—Unadaga, unnamed.

Jolly Roger, b. c, 3, by Order—Happy Sally II. The Barrister, ch. c, 3, by Terra Cotta—Alarming.

Brown colt, 2, by Esher, unnamed. Brown colt, 3, by Tenny—Soprano, unnamed. Burlesque, br. h, 5, by Deceiver—Cicely Bowling, and four other two-year-olds, three of which are the get of Fonso.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The officials of the Northern Circuit, composed of the Highland Park, Detroit, Windsor, Montreal and Fort Erie tracks, met in Detroit Saturday to canvass plans for next season's racing and elect officers for 1899. Last year's officers were re-elected as follows: President, M. B. Mills, of Detroit; Vice President, John W. Price, of Nashville; Treasurer, George M. Hendrie, of Detroit; Secretary, W. O. Farmer, of Nashville. Financial reports made showed that all the tracks except Windsor cleared a profit last year, bad weather causing some loss at the latter track. For 1899 about the same stakes and purses will be offered as those of last year. At the Bel Air track, Montreal, a new grand stand and club house will be erected. The stakes will be announced soon.

Jockeys Corner, Sebastian, P. Sweeney, J. Lynch, Clarke and Welsh, are among the shining exemplars of skill in the saddle who have gone to Tampa, Fla. The meeting is scheduled for thirty days of actual racing, running on alternate days from the beginning, January 14. Among the owners and horses at Tampa are:

W. H. Laird, with Volutante, Timberland, Barney Aaron, Galgo, Parson and Carlotta C.; B. Cooper, with King Elkwood, Shieldbearer, Anger and Bob Lex; J. Bell, with Little Dick, Bob Turner and Lenox; W. D. Steele, with Callie Smart, M. Reynolds, and Etta P.; B. McCall, with Chiquita II. and The Naulahka; Joe Stephenson, with Billy McKenzie, Mike Haverty and Newhouse; J. Lloyd, with The Monon and Star and Crescent; T. L. Wilson, with General Magruder, Laverna and New Woman; Strobel & Miller, with Miss Al Farrow, Bagpipe and Lillian E.; R. B. Allen, with Harry Bennett, Belle of Corsica and Mamie Lou; C. Wise, with Blacking Brush and Pirate Prince; J. H. Smith, with Jack Hayes, Ter ramie, Cecil and Tip Gallant; John Vaguelin, with Fred Smith; Purcell & Co., with Slow Go; Skaggs & Fry, with Lula Fry, Plug, Mavonia and The Dee; Doc McClurser & Co., with Joe O'Sot and Jim Bohem; Jim Derbin, with Corwin, Ermelia and Bridget.

The most important business transacted at the meeting of the members of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, held January 5, was the election of the following Stewards to serve for three years (January, 1902), or until their successors shall have been elected: Messrs. August Belmont, J. G. Follansbee, J. G. Heckscher and F. H. M. Birkhead.

Later on the same day the Stewards held a meeting at which several amendments to the present rules were proposed by Mr. S. S. Howland. These amendments will be brought up for adoption at a regular meeting of the Board of Stewards, to be held Thursday, February 2.

The chief features of the proposed amendments are an increase in the number of members of the Board of Stewards necessary to constitute a quorum from five to seven. The Executive Committee to consist of seven instead of five members. Four members of the Executive Committee to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business of that committee. It is further provided that at all race meetings under license of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, a special meeting of the Executive may be convened at any time by such members of the Executive Committee as may be present. At such meetings the presence of four members of the Committee shall not be necessary to constitute a quorum. Action of the Executive Committee at such special meeting shall continue in force and effect only until the next meeting of the Executive Committee, regularly convened, at which a quorum shall be present.—Spirit of The Times.

The Breeders Mutual Protective Association, organized last fall to buy up poorly-bred thoroughbred mares and sell them in western markets without their pedigrees, so that they may not come into competition with the better class of stock, will extend its operations. This spring it will buy up a hundred or more finely-bred fillies, spay them and sell them at thoroughbred sales. This will give the spaying process a fine chance to be tried thoroughly in racing. O. H. Chénault, the well known breeder and prominent member of the association, will make a personal canvass of all thoroughbred horsemen in the country to secure funds to carry on the work of the association.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

The Burns case still hangs fire, the interested parties having come to no agreement as yet. It looks as though the Memphis firm, J. W. Schorr & Son, will get Burns, and that some kind of terms will be made with E. F. Simms. Burns has been riding during the past two days under the contract made with the Schorr firm, and the fact that Simms has not objected, points to the fact that some kind of a settlement has been partly arrived at.—New Orleans Picayune.

Jockey Joe Piggott had $12,000 in the hands of Mrs. Henry Walsh when that lady died the other day. She was Piggott's guardian, and so arranged matters that the boy could not touch the money until he was twenty-one years of age, which he will be in about another year. "Old Pig" is different from the majority of pigskin artists, in that he believes in making hay while the sun shines. Mrs. Walsh was the best friend he ever had.—San Francisco Examiner.

THE MEMPHIS ENTRIES.

MEMPHIS, TENN., January 16.—The list of the stake entries for the spring meeting of the New Memphis Jockey Club for this year shows a very favorable increase in numbers and quality over those of the preceding years. The Montgomery Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, closed with 55 entries, against 43 of 1898, and 35 of 1897. The Gaston Hotel Stakes, for two-year-old colts and geldings, has 64 nominations, against 56 of 1898, and 36 of 1897. The Ardelle Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, has 54 entries, against 42 of 1898, and 46 of 1897. The New Gayoso Hotel Stakes, for two-year-olds, has 51 nominations, against 73 of last year, and 47 of 1897. The Memphis Stakes, for two-year-olds, has 64 entries, against 66 of 1898, and 39 of 1897.

The Luehrmann Hotel Stakes, for three-year-olds, has 45 nominations, against 23 of 1898, and 34 of 1897. The Tennessee Breeding Co. Stakes, a selling sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward, closed with 72 entries against 54 of 1898, and 42 of 1897. The Peabody Hotel Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, has 50 entries, against 40 of 1898, and 27 of 1897.

The Tennessee Oaks, a new stake, for three-year-old fillies, at one mile, received 66 nominations for 1899, and 48 for 1900. The Tennessee Derby for this year had 119 entries, while for 1900 it received but 85. Secretary Macfarlan cannot account for the falling off of the number of entries for next year's Derby and Oaks, unless it is due to the carelessness of breeders and owners. It cost nothing to enter in either stake. The Derby has $3,000 added, and will be worth around $7,000 to the winner this year. Horsemen do not carefully read the conditions of stakes or they would enter more liberally in the rich added money events.

The weights for the Montgomery Handicap, to be run on the opening day of the meeting, will appear on February 15 and declaration to be made on or before March 1.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

G. B. Molere has purchased nine of the MacDonough broodmares at private sale. Among the number were Mirandaic, Dizzy Blonde, Princess Idle, Mercedes, Namore, Eliza, Jongeuse and Bud. Molere owns a ranch in Monterey County and has Rey Alfonso at the head of his stud.—The Tribune.

A dispatch to the Inter Ocean gives First Tenor, Obsidian, Survivor, Ailyar, Olinthus, Horton, Lime Water, Corsini and Maud Ferguson as the probable starters for the California Derby. As the race does not come off until March 18 it looks like guessing a long way ahead and ignoring the possible developments of two months.

Before Flushington started for the race he won at Ingleside last Wednesday, Mr. Corrigan offered to sell him for $100. "Frisco" Linde took him at once and Corrigan bet the hundred on Survivor in the next race and cashed.

Last Thursday Barney Schreiber sold Imperious to Pat Dunne and the horse straightway won three races for his new owner, a circumstance that would incline one to think he might have been worth keeping.

Capt. J. H. Rees, W. F. Schulte, president of the New Louisville Jockey Club, and S. M. Apperson, president of the Little Rock Jockey Club viewed the races at New Orleans Saturday.

Ed Corrigan's well known jumper Redington has been destroyed because of an injury to his shoulder that was deemed incurable.

O. G. Parke has decided to quit the turf, and his entire string will be sold at auction at New Orleans some day this week.

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment.
The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

Time, 25, 50, 1:03, 1:16.

Winner—B. c. by Buchanan—Espanita.
Start good. Won handily. Cyril was plainly best in the going. He took the lead when ready and won without urging. Lord Marmion likes a dry track and ran as well as could be expected on a track unfavorable to him. Don't Skip Me was overweighted and gave away early.
Pat Murphy and Flushington belong in a slower class.

Time, 24, 50, 1:03, 1:16.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—Merrimac.
Start good. Won easily. Ach was much the best and always held his opponents safe. He was pulled up at the end. He is erratic and not to be depended upon when in against horses of about his own speed. Sir Urian is partial to soft ground, which accounts for his position today.
The Fretter may be stalling from too much racing. Banowor and Doremus seem to be of little account. The other two are worse.

Overweights—The Fretter, 2 pounds; Banowor, 2.
Sir Urian, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. The Fretter, show, 1 to 3.

Time, 25, 50, 1:16, 1:44.

Winner—Ch. f, by Candlemas—Perhaps.
Start fair. Won handily. As the race was run Hardly seemed to be the best. She was lucky and well handled. Lode Star was in a pocket for most of the route and made up a lot of ground when clear. Tom Cromwell was cut off on the far turn and came very fast through the stretch.
Ballista was unlucky and ran a better race than the chart shows. Myth looked like a winner to the stretch, then quit owing to having been made too much use of. Rainier dislikes mud.
Jerry Hunt was off badly and incapable ridden. Robert Bonner's race should not be considered.

Overweights—Ballista, 2 pounds.

Corrected weights—Myth, 111.

Time, 25, 51, 1:16, 1:30.

Winner—Ch. h, by Strathmore—Black Maria.
Start good. Won driving. Captive and Prince Tyrant drove the length of the stretch, the former winning through Thorpe's greater power in finishing. Prince Tyrant pulled up lame.
Elidad closed a huge gap in the last quarter, after laying out of the race to the head of the stretch. Wyoming did not run his race. Neither did Lena, who, besides, wants a longer route.
The other two are inferior racehorses.

Scratched—Potente, 104.

Prince Tyrant, place, evens; show, 1 to 3. Elidad, show, 8 to 5.

10330 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Br. h, by Alta—Marilee.
Start fair. Won easily. Don Fulano was best and the going suited his notions. Cherrystone showed sudden and surprising improvement and may do to watch in such company hereafter. Two Cheers showed speed but was short and swerved into the others from distress and was set back. Felicite ran her race as did Glengaber.

Scratched—Colonel Bartlett, 116; Beau Monde, 119; Lord Chesterfield, 119; Ramiro, 122.

Corrected weights—Grandezia, 117.

Don Fulano, place, 2 to 5. Cherrystone, place, 10 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Felicite, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. g. by Donald A.—Mollie Merrill.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Gath recovered his speed and was simply galloping the last sixteenth. Glenmoynes race was below the mark. He had no speed the first part. Shuttlecock wants a fast track. Loyalette ran a dull race.

Scratched—Miss Ross, 99; Command, 101; Lillian Bell, 108; Sim W., 109; Takanassee, 109; Banrica, 100.

Overweights—Gath, 2 pounds.

Gath, place, 4 to 5. Jim Gore II., place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Aunt Maggie, show, 2 to 1, Loyalette, show, 4 to 5.

10321 SECOND RACE—6 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $250. $35 to second; $15 to third. Entrance $10. 3-year-olds. Selling. Horses entered to be sold for $1,400 to carry weight for age. 1 lb. allowed for each $100 to $900; then 2 lbs. for each $100 less to $300. Winners of two or more races at meeting to carry 7 lbs. extra. Beaten non-winners at meeting allowed 5 lbs.

Winner—B. c. by Kantaka or Perblaise—Genevieve.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; second driving. Ned Wickes came away at his leisure the last quarter and won as he pleased. May Droit tired in the stretch. Vignette, Nailer, Elizabeth T. and Coanza were knocked out of it shortly after the start. Salvarse lost his rider in the same jam. The latter was cut down.

Scratched—Hanlight, 103.

Overweights—Sidtilla, 2 pounds; Fintan, 2; Coanza, 2.

Ned Wickes, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Tendresse, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. May Droit, show, evens.
